

Oak Hill First School

Weekly Update

17/10/2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

Happy Friday!

I can't believe it's nearly the end of this half term—thank you all for making me feel so welcome. It's been a joy getting to know the Oak Hill community.

Looking ahead to next half term, we're excited to take part in Anti-Bullying Week 2025, running from 10th to 14th November. This year's theme is "Power for Good," reminding us that each of us has the ability to make a positive impact. We'll kick off the week with Odd Socks Day on Monday 10th November, celebrating individuality and inclusion.

Throughout the week, pupils will be involved in activities that promote kindness, respect, and standing up for one another—from kindness postcards to creative poster competitions. Let's use our Power for Good to make Oak Hill an even kinder place to learn and grow.

A quick reminder that Parent Evenings are taking place next week. If you haven't yet booked an appointment, please contact the school office via Class Dojo. We're looking forward to sharing your child's progress and celebrating their achievements.

And finally—are you making the most of our free clubs? We've got a fantastic range of activities running after school and at lunchtimes, offering children the chance to explore new interests, build friendships, and have fun.
